

The Journal of Forensic Studies in Accounting and Business

Peer Reviewer Application

I invite you to participate as a peer reviewer of The Journal of Forensic Studies in Accounting and Business. Reviewers are vital to assuring the quality of our journal. The Editor will select the reviewers based on their expertise and interest in the primary subject matter presented. Candidates will be accepted to the editorial review board based upon their publishing record and/or recommendations from noted scholars and researchers in the areas of fraud examination and forensic accounting theory, practice and education. If you are interested in joining the editorial review board, please complete this application and attach a current curriculum vita.
